

HIT THE ROAD | Tour | 18 – 20 August 2016

For immediate release

18, 19 and 20 August: November Lights | Skjør | Five Cousins

National youth music touring project, Hit The Road' first tour of 2016 visits Edinburgh, Glasgow and Kilwinning from 18-20 August. Managed by the Scottish Music Centre; the project provides young musicians living in Scotland, between the ages of 14-19 years old, the opportunity to learn about the live industry before embarking on a professionally managed tour. Hit The Road aims to equip young artists with the knowledge, contacts and tools to work within the live industry and is funded by Creative Scotland's Youth Music Initiative (YMI) and PRS for Music Foundation.

The project has acted as a key stepping-stone for some of Scotland's most promising young artists. Notable alumni who have benefited from participating on a Hit The Road tour include; KLOË, Model Aeroplanes, JR Green, Indigo Velvet, Aylee, Man of Moon, Be Charlotte, and The Mermaids *click [Hit The Road tour VIDEOS to view].

SCOTTISH MUSIC CENTRE | <http://www.scottishmusiccentre.com>

Scottish Music Centre is a membership organisation, (with over 100 composer members / creative businesses), registered Charity and a national hub and information point, representing all areas of the industry and delivering a wide range of services to musicians in Scotland. The organisation manages youth music mentoring project Music Plus+, now in its sixth year, as well as youth music touring project, Hit The Road. Both initiatives equip young people based in Scotland between the ages of 14-19 years old with the advice, skills and knowledge they need to consider a career within the creative industries. The centre also houses the largest collection of contemporary classical Scottish music both written and recorded, a vast proportion of which is available for hire or purchase.

Creative Scotland's Youth Music Initiative \(YMI\)

Hit The Road is part of The Scottish Government's Youth Music Initiative (YMI), which is administered by Creative Scotland. The YMI creates access to high quality music making opportunities, enables young people to achieve their potential in or through music and supports the development of the sector for the benefit of young people. Creative Scotland is the national agency for the arts, screen and creative industries, investing money from the Scottish Government and the National Lottery towards the development of Scotland's creative future.

PRS FOR MUSIC FOUNDATION

PRS for Music Foundation's mission is to stimulate and support the creation and performance of new music throughout the UK and to ensure that this music is enjoyed by a wide audience. Over the past 15 years we have proved ourselves as a significant force in supporting pioneering musical activity. Since March 2000 we have supported over 5,200 new music initiatives to the tune of over £22 million. PRS for Music Foundation receives £1.5m per year from PRS for Music.
